The 2023 WVWS Workshop will feature award winning artist and fellow WVWS member, Laurie Goldstein-Warren back by popular demand. The workshop will be at The Canaan Valley Resort and Conference Center near Davis, WV and is scheduled for July 27 - July 30, 2023.

Laurie's work can be found on her website, www.warrenwatercolors.com. Laurie is originally from New York and has been painting watercolors for the last 25 years. Laurie continues to experiment with new techniques in watercolor and watercolor/acrylic. She has exhibited her work in the US, Japan, Turkey, Greece, Canada, and China. She is a much sought after instructor and exhibition juror. Her work focuses on Cityscapes, portraits, and still life. She has been published in The Splash Series, Watercolor Artist Magazine and Art of Watercolor Magazine. She has published her first book in 2021 titled Her Voice including 9 other women watermedia artists. In 2017 her work earned the High Winds Medal at the 150th anniversary of the American Watercolor Society Exhibition! She has been invited to the International Watercolour Masters in England in 2022 and 2024.

This workshop will instruct you to pour from dark to light. You will learn to make luminescent paintings in a few pours with some finishing brush work. The whole purpose of watercolor is to make paintings which sing of light and luminescence. We will be working on these concepts this summer. I hope you will join us!

The fee for the workshop will be $225 for WVWS members and $275 for nonmembers. Checks should be made out to WVWS and mailed to Judy Reed, 818 Pike Street, Shinnston, WV 26431. Judy can be reached at (304) 669-3041 or jmreed16@yahoo.com.
